

RUTGERS

Center for Molecular and Behavioral Neuroscience • Aidekman Research Center
University Heights • 197 University Avenue • Newark • New Jersey 07102
Fax 973/353-1760 • Telephone 973/353-3305 • wayneb@rutgers.edu

2017 STATEMENT OF CRITERIA FOR GA APPOINTMENT TO THE Behavioral and Neural Sciences Ph.D. PROGRAM

I. Required Courses and their Grades

- Passing (B or better) the core courses in BNS, including the three semesters of Foundations in Neuroscience (I, II, and III) and Critical Thinking.
- Showing proficiency in Statistics and in Data Analysis Methods by obtaining a B (or better) in one of the Statistics and one of the Data Analysis courses available to BNS or by prior course work for previous degrees that is considered by BNS to be a scholarly equivalent for these courses.

II. Satisfactory Performance in:

1. Teaching assignments. Graduate Assistants must teach 2 undergraduate and 1 graduate courses during their studies in Ph.D. Program.
2. Course work for a total of 30 course credits (must maintain a 3.0 GPA each year)
3. Research Rotations

III. Satisfactory Progress towards the degree in terms of:

1. Early Research Project
2. Passing Qualifying Examination in a timely way
3. Timely presentation of Research Proposal along with assembly of a thesis committee

Printed Name and Signature of the Graduate Fellow Accepting the provisions of this document
